

DELTA 500 CLUB

NEWSLETTER FOR MARCH 2002

Nancy's Notes

This month has flown by, where has the time gone?

Pearl Martin has appointed Lisa Cluff to the position of Sgt./Arms. Margie Peterson had to resign because of health reasons.

The Valentines Doubles started the month off. Now City Tournament is in full swing. If you are not bowling in it maybe you would be interested in coming to watch. It is a lot of fun and plenty of good bowling.

The bus to Lake Tahoe still has six seats available. If interested in more information on this trip call Lana 478-0573

The vests ordering are still taking place. Talk to any board member for more details.

Wishing each and everyone a Happy St. Patrick's Day. Everybody is Irish for one day!

Nancy

California State 500

The Princess Tournament this year will be in Foster City on May 17, 2002. If you are interested let a board member be aware. We will take all of the names and we will vote at the Open Meeting in April. The Club pays the entry fee for this tournament. The girls who have gone in the past always seem to have fun.
